Dear Friends:

In the most important election in Wisconsin, and indeed the most important election in the entire country this year, we strongly support Justice Dan Kelly.

On April 4th, voters in Wisconsin will determine the future direction of our state. Will we continue to adhere to the principles of the rule of law and basic law and order, or will we choose a radical new direction, where activists on the court invent the law themselves to suit their political goals?

Dan Kelly has already been tested, and served Wisconsin well. During his time as Supreme Court Justice, Kelly proved himself dedicated to the Constitution's call for impartiality. He put politics aside and applied the law as written. That is what we should expect from all judges.

Janet Protosiewicz has a radically different view of the job of Supreme Court Justice. It seems she wants to be a superlegislator who makes the law up herself as she goes along. In a radical departure from nearly every judicial race ever run in Wisconsin, Protosiewicz is making clear it is her personal views, not the law, which will guide her decisions. If she wins, our proud tradition of following the rule of law could quickly be replaced with the "Rule of Janet." This threatens the very bedrock of order in our state.

Funded by millions from out of state activists, Protosiewicz's bid to radically alter Wisconsin's judiciary is a real threat. In order to stop it, it will take all of those who truly believe in our Constitution and the rule of law to unite.

We stand united in support of Dan Kelly for Supreme Court and ask you to join with us to turn back this unprecedented threat to the rule of law in our great state.

Sincerely,

Senator Ron Johnson

Congressman Mike Gallagher

Congressman Scott Fitzgerald
